

Law Enforcement Defensive Tactics Training

With the current police reform legislation, the need for relevant use of force training is crucial. Kerry Murakami with Rectitude Training uses the latest research combined with combative sports like jiu-jitsu, wrestling and boxing, along with scenario-based training, to work with an agency's current combative/defensive tactics and firearms training programs to teach and promote "Behavior that is Righteous". You can find Kerry's contact information on the IRMA website under Membership Discounts.